FALL C
Lesson 2

Listen & Learn

“The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.”

Proverbs 9:10

During mealtime or in the car, take turns to list ways we can show our respect for God. (Here are some things our family came up with: read and follow the teachings of Jesus; obey your parents; treat others with kindness; take good care of God’s creation; take care of all the material things God has blessed you with; be respectful to other people; love and accept people of all kinds of backgrounds, abilities, and colors.) After each suggestion, it’s interesting to rate our family on how we are doing in that area on a scale of 1 to 10, (1 being low and 10 being high). End the discussion by praying for each other.

Try This:

Write out Proverbs 9:10 on an index card. On the back, write, “When we respect God, we learn from Him.” Put the card where you will see it each day (dinner table, dashboard, etc.). Read the card each day this week with your kids. Make it a game to look for one way each day that you increased your respect for God or your knowledge about Him!
