FALL C
Lesson 13

Follow God EVERY Day

"You shall have no other gods before me."
See Exodus 20:4

Our kids love to take turns putting on a blindfold. Another gives the blinded person verbal directions to get from Point A to Point B. Sometimes the blinded person takes the arm of the other person to safely navigate difficult places. The goal is to get the person safely to Point B. After the game, it's a good time to talk about how glad we are that God is worthy of our trust. His directions are spot-on and He's with us all the way! We can confidently follow Him.

Try This:

While I prepared supper one evening, I gave my kids some colored paper and had them trace around their feet. They cut the foot shapes out and wrote on them, "I choose to follow God EVERY day." They hung the shapes on their closet doors where they would see the reminder every day. On the way to school or during breakfast, it's a perfect time to pause and talk about ways we can follow God today. Each of us shares some way we will follow Him today.
