Time for God

Come and listen to the words of the Lord.

See Joshua 3:9

I always read a lot to my preschoolers, but unless I had a good Bible storybook for little ones and a time set up to read it together, it seemed like reading God's Word didn't happen as often as I wanted. Here's an idea to help: Create a simple bedtime plan and follow it every night: take a bath, put on pajamas, brush teeth, read the Bible, pray, kiss goodnight, lights out. This makes the bedroom routine easier for everyone and provides at least one time everyday to read and listen to the words of the Lord together.

Try This:

Give a Bible storybook that your preschoolers can understand to those your child spends time with, like grandparents and the babysitter, and let them know how much your child would love to snuggle with them and hear God's Word read.
