Lesson 11

Teaching Friendship

A friend loves at all times.

Proverbs 17:17

I enjoy taking my turn helping in the preschool room at church for a couple reasons. It's fun to see the environment and activities my child is in every week at church. It also helps me observe ways I can help my child keep learning to be a good friend. Preschoolers are still not always willing to share or take turns, but they are learning and do it on their own sometimes. At home, we talk about and practice sharing and taking turns when we play together. I tell my child, When you share and take turns, you are a good friend. Let's pray and ask God to help us be good friends.

Try This:

When we celebrate a family member or friend's birthday, I have my child pick out or make a gift to give and provide or let her make wrapping paper. She makes a card and gives the gift herself. I tell her, A good friend loves her friends.
