Talk to Me

I pray to you, Lord.
Psalm 69:13

Preschoolers love routines! It helps them to know what is coming next. One routine my daughter loved is our morning greeting; I say something and she echoes me: I say, “Good morning to YOU!” and she echoes it back. I look up and say, “Good morning, God!” and we continue our morning prayer. “Help me be kind to my family.” “Thank You for food and a place to live.” “I love You, Jesus.” “Amen.” Sometimes she leads the prayer, and then I echo her. I tell her, Jesus loves to talk with you. He is your loving friend.

Try This:

At bedtime, my preschooler and I pretend to have a conference phone conversation with God, telling Him about our day, thanking Him for things, asking for His help for something. We finish by telling Him we love Him and we’ll be talking again very soon. I tell my child, Praying to God is like talking to a good friend.
