SUMMER A
Lesson 6

An Escape!

Your faithful people will extol you. . . . and speak of your might, so that all people may know of your mighty acts and the glorious splendor of your kingdom.

Psalm 145:10-12

Have you ever watched a magician's trick and tried to figure out "how he did that"? Our kids went through a phase when they learned to do sleight-of-hand tricks. (Sometimes I'd like a "sleight-of-hand" escape from a situation I am in!) And sometimes our family has experienced the power of God in an extraordinary way that has amazed us because it was very unexpected. We make sure to write down these events to remember God's power and faithfulness to us. We look at our book and recount them together. It builds faith and courage for what we are facing today!

Try This:

When my preteen has a problem that seems overwhelming to her, I try to show compassion. I listen without making a judgment or giving advice. I try not to downplay her situation. Instead, I listen and we pray together. I continue to pray for her and let her know I am praying! I send her texts and leave notes reassuring her of God's love and help that is on its way to her.
