WINTER A
Lesson 9

A Kind Heart

Be kind to everyone.

2 Timothy 2:24

My preschooler is so precious to me, and I want her to know I value her. When I have been impatient with her or quick to anger, I go back to her later and tell her, “I am sorry.” I ask her to forgive me and say, “I forgive you.” When she is unkind, I remind her to say she is sorry. We learn 2 Timothy 2:24 together by singing it to the tune of “Row, Row, Row Your Boat,” (singing it four times and ending with “Be kind”) and sing it when we need a reminder to be kind.

Try This:

I notice specific ways my preschooler is kind and tell him. When my preschooler shares with a sibling or friend, I say, You were kind to share. When he waits his turn, I say, You were kind to wait.
