Family Devotions

Hopefully your preteen is beginning to develop a habit of personal devotions. But there are still plenty of times when your input is needed—and valued. Encourage your child to read the daily Scriptures. Read the verses yourself. Use the questions to help your preteen understand the verses and apply them to life. Discover and learn from God’s Word—together!

- SUNDAY—Read Genesis 3:1-5.
Look back at Genesis 2:16, 17. What had God told Adam and Eve about the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden? What lie did the serpent tell Eve? Why do you think that Eve believed him?
- MONDAY—Read Genesis 3:6, 7.
Eve pressured Adam to sin, and then they both realized their guilt. What can you do when you feel pressured to do the wrong things that others around you are doing?
- TUESDAY—Read Genesis 3:8-13.
How did Adam and Eve try to shift the blame for their sin? What can happen if you try to blame someone else when you’ve done something wrong?
- WEDNESDAY—Read James 1:13-15.
What can happen if you give in to that first temptation to sin? How can you keep temptation at a minimum in your life?
- THURSDAY—Read 1 John 2:15-17.
How long do the things of this world last? According to these verses, what is the result of following God rather than the world?

- FRIDAY—Read Romans 6:1-6.
What should your life be like after you have been baptized into Jesus? What should you no longer be a slave to?
- SATURDAY—Read Romans 6:11-14.
What should not be your master? In what ways can you use your body to serve God?
