Family Devotions

Hopefully your preteen is beginning to develop a habit of personal devotions. But there are still plenty of times when your input is needed—and valued. Encourage your child to read the daily Scriptures. Read the verses yourself. Use the questions to help your preteen understand the verses and apply them to life. Discover and learn from God’s Word—together!

○ SUNDAY—Read Acts 8:9-13.

Do you think some people were surprised when Simon, the primary sorcerer in Samaria, was baptized? What does this say about the power of the name of Jesus Christ?

○ MONDAY—Read Acts 8:18-22.

What big mistake did Simon make after he had become a Christian? What did he need to do to make things right again?

○ TUESDAY—Read 1 John 1:5-7.

What is the connection between God and light or darkness? What can we do to walk in light, rather than in the darkness of sin?

○ WEDNESDAY—Read 1 John 1:8-10.

Is it possible to hide sin? What happens when a person confesses his sins? How can we give God and His Word a prominent place in our lives?

○ THURSDAY—Read 1 John 2:1, 2.

When have you been in trouble and needed someone to defend you? As followers of Jesus, we know He speaks in our defense before God when we sin.

○ FRIDAY—Read 1 John 2:3-6.

Do you think you walk “as Jesus did”? What commands do you need to obey to demonstrate God’s importance in your life?

○ SATURDAY—Read Titus 3:4-7.

Who is the source of salvation? Can we ever be good enough to earn a place in God’s kingdom? What hope does Jesus give?
