

Serve the Lord

Lesson 8, Exodus 3:9–10; Ephesians 6:5–9; Colossians 3:22–4:1; Philemon 15–17, NIV

Manifesto for Christian Workers

Write a manifesto for Christian workers based on the principles in today's texts. Use Ephesians 6:5–9; Colossians 3:22–4:1; and Philemon 15–17 to craft your answers. Manifestos often use direct, action-oriented sentences.

Because I am a Christian, I will hold these attitudes at work and toward those who supervise my work:

1. _____
_____
2. _____
_____

Because I am a Christian, I will treat those whose work I supervise in the following ways:

1. _____
_____
2. _____
_____

Welcoming Everyone

Consider the following categories of people. How might you serve each group in the name of Christ? List specifics!

The homeless _____

Immigrants _____

The affluent _____

The incarcerated _____

Workers in service industries _____

Those living with disabilities _____

Those living with mental illness _____

Political leaders _____

Those without education _____

Those living in poverty _____
