Now hold this page up to a mirror and read the reflected message. What does the message say?

In what ways does our understanding of God's work become clearer over time?

Suffering to Salvation

Fill in the blanks. Try to complete the sentences from memory, utilizing words from 1 Peter 1:6–9. The first one is completed as an example. Then, read 1 Peter 1:6–9 to check your answers.

Manifold temptations that try your _____ might be found unto _____ at the appearing of _____ who causes ye to rejoice with _____ because in the end you receive _____.

Summarize, in your own words, the relationship between trials, hope, joy, and salvation in this passage.

How do these ideas work together in the life of a believer?
