

My New Direction

Prayerfully consider your life. List two or three specific examples of worldly desires, habits, or pursuits that tempt you or occupy your time (1 Peter 4:2).

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Pray over your list, asking God to help you live according to his will instead of the world's. Then identify how you might arm yourself with Christ's attitude toward each example that you listed above.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

My Priority Thermometer

Peter warns believers that “the end of all things is near” (1 Peter 4:7). With that in mind, how would you rank soberness, watchfulness, and prayer in your current daily life? Mark your “temperature” for each on the thermometer below, then answer the questions.

Soberness: My current temperature: _____°.

Why? _____

Watchfulness: My current temperature: _____°.

Why? _____

Prayer: My current temperature: _____°.

Why? _____

